*“Become the impossible, do the unreal, be yourself and be it all the way.”
– Hindi Krinsky*

Hindi's Libraries accepts new and gently used books for children and young adults. Our goal is to continue Hindi's legacy and provide children and families in need or with special needs with reading material and literature that they would be proud to receive and own.

Board books, picture books, leveled readers, chapter books/children's novels, young adult novels/high school literary works are welcome and greatly appreciated.

We do not accept:

Coloring Books
Puzzle/Activity Books/Workbooks
Study Materials/Test Preparation (Regents, SAT)
Cookbooks
Journals
Calendars
Encyclopedias
Thesauruses/Dictionaries
Adult Books
Instruction Manuals
Bibles/Prayer Books
Toys/Games
Maps/Atlases
Library Books that include an outside label/inside card
PJ Library Books

We ask that you please take a moment to review your donations to confirm that they are in good condition and do not contain:

Tears/Rips
Stains
Missing pages
Crayon/marker/pen marks
Items missing from the book – including CD, cards, jewelry, stickers, etc.

We thank you for your contribution towards our organization and look forward to sharing your books with children throughout the country. If you have any questions, please contact us at info@hindislibraries.org
